Nine Entered For Kentucky Derby To Be Run Saturday

By RAY AYRES
LOUISVILLE, Ky. (UP) — The entries for Saturday's running of the $150,000 added Kentucky Derby closed on a dramatic note today with nine entered for America's greatest horse race.

The box already had been closed and then was reopened to include the last horse.

That was investor, the outsider in the field. He probably will start, if he does, at odds of 100 to 1.

Fish Fry Now Underway On Paris Square

The World's Biggest Fish Fry, observing its tenth anniversary as the biggest celebration of the Paris-Henry County-Kentucky Lake area, officially begins Wednesday with expectations of being bigger than ever before at Paris, Tennessee.

Events packed into the four days, Wednesday through Saturday, will include the biggest parade in man history, serving of more than three tons of Kentucky Lake catfish, and a beauty pageant among 38 beauty queens.

As if that were not enough, there will be a carnival, industrial exhibits, a double parade for children, a band concert, entertainment for visiting dignitaries, a bear growing contest, a judo and karate demonstration, the beginning of a two-month fishing rodeo, and a big square dance to wind it all up.

Paris will be jammed for the festivities, especially on Friday, when is parade day and the first of two days of fish dinners. One estimate at the number of visitors expected 60,000.

The weatherman apparently plans to cooperate. Forecasts call for clearing skies tonight, with a premonition Thursday warmer and partly cloudy.

The hub of the hubbub is Paris Fry headquarters, located in the Army recruiting office on East Wood Street, where a small army of Paris Jaycees, their wives, and other volunteers coordinate activities. Jaycees, sponsors of the celebration since 1958, are working under the direction of Doyle Owen, club president and general Paris Fry chairman.

of a chance in an otherwise well balanced field were: Candy Spots, Never Bend, No Robbery, Bonjour, Chateausay, On My Honor, Gray Pet, and Royal Tower.

It was trainer Frank Stone who made the last minute, desperate attempt to get his horse into the race and finally succeeded.

The entry box was scheduled to close at 9:30 a. m. and when investor was not named it was held open while a call went out for Stone. When he arrived he attempted to contact owner J. J. Cherock by long distance telephone. The line was busy. It was busy for a second call.

Get Desperate Call

Racing secretary Allan Doc Lavin said he could not wait any longer and Jim Conway, who trains Chateausay, was ready to roll the first roll when a desperate voice called: "Doc, doc, wait a minute."

Investor was entered in as close a race as the Kentucky Derby ever has produced.

Investor's presence immediately had an effect on the 8th running of the Kentucky Derby. For in the draw for post position, Rex Kilsworth's undefeated Candy Spots, the favorite drew the outside post.

Chateausay got the rail position with investor in the highly prized No. 2 spot. Then came Bonjour, Royal Tower, Gray Pet, Never Bend, No Robbery, On My Honor and Candy Spots.

Dr. Brunner Back From Talent Study

Dr. Edward Brunner of Murray State College, has just returned from a regional conference in Virginia, on Talent Development. This was one of a series of regional conferences on this subject.

The opening address was given by Governor Bert T. Combs of Kentucky. Governor Combs told the group that much is said about conservation of natural resources, while one of the most important resources, talented children, is being ignored.

He urged that the proper climate and facilities be acquired for the development of these gifted individuals.

The purpose of the regional conference was to study and stimulate interest in the development of a special program whereby the talented individual can realize his fullest potential.

Congress has under consideration at this time, the providing of funds for an advanced study program for teachers and for the talented child.

Art Collection Brings Over Million

NEW YORK (UP) — One of the greatest collections of paintings by old masters that was saved from the Castro regime was auctioned off Wednesday night in 45 minutes for $1,280,500.

A dealer bidding by telephone from London for a private collector entered the top price in the public auction at the Parke-Bernet Galleries on 1000 Fifth Ave. for "The Merry Little Player" by Frans Hals.

The work was part of the collection of the late Oscar B. Childs, who transferred his art treasures from Cuba to New York before he died in 1957.

In 1957, "The Merry Little Player" was disappointing, since some estimates of its worth had exceeded $600,000. The work was the most valuable of the Dutch artist, who executed it in 1625-27.

Other purchases, identified only as private collectors, brought Rembrandt's "Portrait of a Young Girl," said to be Hendrickje Stoffels, for $280,000. Hals' "Old Woman Van Drusevick" for $30,000 and another Rembrandt, "Portrait of a Rabbi," for $65,000.

Chandler In Christian County Today

HOPKINSVILLE, Ky. (UP) — former Gov. A. B. Chandler was to campaign today in the Christian County balliwick of his opponent, Edward T. Breathitt Jr.

Chandler, who is to speak tonight at the Trigg County Courthouse in Cadiz, denounced Paducah and Louisville newspapers in a talk at Benton Wednesday.

He charged that these newspapers have "no regard for the truth," are "masters of distortion and deceit," under the cloak of freedom of the press.

The former governor, who is seeking an unprecedented third term in the executive mansion declared that his successor, Gov. Bert Combs, is "no damned good."

"I say to you now that you can't afford four more years of his kind," Chandler added.

Bo Belinsky beat the Yankees, so don't bother asking if he also managed to beat the curfew. He celebrated Wednesday night and even Bo had every right in the world to Manager Bill Rigney wouldn't deny him it.

The irresponsible 26-year-old southpaw not only defeated the Yankees for the first time in his hectic career but also won his first game of the season by pitching the Los Angeles Angels to a 5-3 victory. Maybe you think of Bo wasn't happy in the clubhouse. He was so elated, he wanted to buy champagne for the gang.

Belinsky, who had lost his first three games, really had it Wednesday night.

He held the Yankees hitless until Roger Maris singled with one out in the sixth, then pitched his way out of a ninth inning jam by getting pinch hitter Jack Reed on a ground-er for the final out.

Bo allowed only four hits, struck out nine and was stalked to a quick lead when George Thomas clipped lower Ralph Terry for a grand-slam homer in the first inning. Driven to the showers in that 29-minute first inning, Terry suffered his second loss against three victories.

Elsewhere in the American League, the Kansas City A's clung to first place with an 11-3 triumph over the Cleveland Indians, the Chicago White Sox swept a pair from the Baltimore Orioles, 7-0 and 6-4, the Boston Red Sox mauled the Minnesota Twins, 14-5, and the Washington Senators defeated the Detroit Tigers, 4-1.

Jerry Lynch, All Or Nothing Pinch Hitter For The Reds, Could Set New Home Run Mark

By FRED DOWN

United Press International

Jerry Lynch, baseball's highest-priced pinch hitter, operates on the theory of all or nothing at all.

That's the way he dickers at contract time and that's the manner he goes up to hit when Manager Fred Hutchinson tells him to grab a bat.

Always looking to "rip one downtown," Lynch did Wednesday night when he blasted the 18th pinch homer of his career to power the Cincinnati Reds to a come-from-behind 4-3 victory over the Milwaukee Braves.

The greying 32-year-old Lynch, who draws an estimated salary of $25,000 a year, now needs only one more pinch homer to tie the major league record of 14 held by George Crowe.

Has Two Hits

Lynch's homer off loser Lew Burdette with rookie Tom Harper on base in the seventh inning was only his second hit of the season in 10 times up. His only other hit also was a pinch homer that helped the Reds beat the San Francisco Giants, 7-4, on April 22.

Southpaw Jim O'Toole was the beneficiary of both blows, being the winner in the game against the Giants and again in Wednesday night's contest. O'Toole, now 5-1, gave up nine hits to the Braves before Lynch hit for him in the seventh. Al Worthington then wrapped it up by retiring the last six batters in order.

San Francisco snapped Pittsburgh's four-game winning streak, 5-1, and the Chicago Cubs came out of their batting slump with a 17-hit 13-8 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals.

Angels Defeat Yankees

In the American League, the Kansas City A's crushed the Cleveland Indians, 11-3, the Washington Senators downed the Detroit Tigers, 4-1, the Boston Red Sox drubbed the Minnesota Twins, 14-5, the Chicago White Sox swept a twin-bill from the Baltimore Orioles, 7-0 and 6-4, and the Los Angeles Angels defeated the New York Yankees, 5-3.

Jack Sanford posted his fourth victory of the season for the Giants with a seven-hitter over the Pirates. Bob Friend, victim of a three-run rally in the fourth, suffered his first loss after three victories. Willie McCovey drove in two runs with three of the Giants' 12 hits.

Dear Abby . . .

DIAGNOSING DOCTOR'S CASE!

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I am a nurse and I see things many other people don't see. For some time I have been watching the comings and goings of a young married woman. She "visits" the hospital frequently so that she can see a certain doctor, who is also married and has a family. This young woman has a fine husband and a lovely home. The entire hospital personnel is aware of the situation, and even the doctor tries his best to get rid of her. Don't you think someone should speak to this woman's husband so he can straighten her out? We'd appreciate your advice before something terrible comes about.

WONDERING

DEAR WONDERING: I have yet to see the doctor who wasn't able to "get rid" of a woman without my help. Leave the woman's husband alone. If you really feel that someone should "straighten out" the woman—suggest it to the doctor. And he might straighten YOU out.

DEAR ABBY: My 16-year old daughter wears a size 20 dress. If I have pie or cake in the house, that's what she eats for breakfast. I have four other children and a husband to feed, so I can make only non-fattening meals for her on Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bethel Richardson and Mr. and Mrs. Pat Trevathan attended the convention of the Certified Public Accountants held at the Village Inn, Gilbertsville, Thursday through Saturday.

alone. If I cook spaghetti and meatballs, I have to look up the leftovers or this daughter will finish it. I've had her to doctors who put her on diets but she never sticks with any of them. She has no willpower. She is driving me crazy. What should I do?

TIED MOTHER

DEAR TIED: Your daughter should see a doctor who treats "emotional disorders." That is what's causing her to eat compulsively. Unless your daughter is treated for the CAUSE of her overeating, she will never stick with a diet.

GAVE UP

DEAR GAVE UP: His mother probably frightened him with a soufflé when he was young. Just keep on feeding him meat and potatoes at home. And when he dines out, let him sit in the corner and suck his thumb.

'Butterfly' Poems Fresh as Spring

Reviewed by Ernest Vaughn

"Butterfly Flutter By" is as fresh as spring itself. After reading this book of poems this reviewer has decided there are real poets developing in this country. Nature is the theme of these poems by Gary De Neal.

Through his choice of words and interesting word arrangements one can see nature in all its many forms—rivers, trees, mountains, rain. These poems state simply, yet profoundly, the oftentimes unseen patterns of nature.

Through these poems by Mr. DeNeal the reader is taken on a journey through nature. The reader travels from the valleys to the mountains, from the streams to the prairies. The reader is confronted with the most memorable pictures. It is a journey one is not likely to forget.

This reviewer is not an advocate of the no capitals-commas-periods style of poetry, but we may forgive Mr.

DeNeal his particular style since he does have excellent thoughts in his poems. This reviewer would suggest that, for the reader's sake, capital letters, periods, and commas would be good.

Mr. DeNeal, 18, is a native of Harrisburg, Ill., and a graduate of the Harrisburg High School. He is now a freshman here at Murray State College.

This reviewer looks forward to seeing more from this talented young man. He is assured of a long and rewarding career.

For a fresh experience in poetry this reviewer recommends this first book of poems by a startling young poet.
